It's that cheeriest time of year again!

FRIENDS will host a Christmas open house at the Library on Tuesday, December 19, from seven to eight-thirty in the evening.

Come see old friends and new smiles, exchange merry Christmases with fellow readers, share a sip of tea.

H.V.
There'll be a musical program planned and presented by Mr. Robert LaRue. Refreshments of Christmas nature will be offered. Committee includes Mmes. A.M. Lindner, John Hales, Dorothy Olney, Shu Miho, Edward Treadgold, Carol Funk, Jack Dunn and Miss Carlotta Hoyer. Cookies will be gratefully accepted!

Important business: board meeting at eleven a.m. Wednesday, December 6, at the library. All members of course, are welcome to attend.

The rock collection of Carla Randall will soon be replaced by a Christmas special in the display case.

There's been a heavy run on the Manchester book about the assassination; latest addition to the growing ranks of think pieces is The Truth About the Assassination by Charles Roberts.

"Live, Laugh, Learn With Books" Poster Contest display by North School students goes up this week. Judges are Mmes. Thomas Purpus, John Hales, Edward Treadgold, Kathryn Ditmar and Robert Fagenstrom.

Circulation is 1,188 higher than November of last year says Kathryn Ditmar!

The art walk did not materialize because the interest of galleries in Monday walkers has waned. There is no central publicity source any more, and most of the galleries are now closed Monday p.m.s. Too bad. So much for LaCienega. Ah well, we have several good galleries right in the neighborhood!

Come to the library December 19!

Merry Christmas to all!
